

EARTHQUAKE SUPPLY KITS

Here are some sample websites that sell "kits" of supplies. These kits contain basic supplies which need to be supplemented by whatever you feel you will need if you can't get home for 1-3 days. I've also included the Cupertino website. Under "Emergency Preparedness" is a list of items to consider including in a backpack kit.

The City of Cupertino does not endorse any of these organizations. They are presented as a sample of the many companies offering supply kits. By doing a web search on "Earthquake Kits" for a complete listing.
